Romania's overall NSGO index score

Romania's scores on the four NSGO dimensions

TRANSPARENCY. 47%

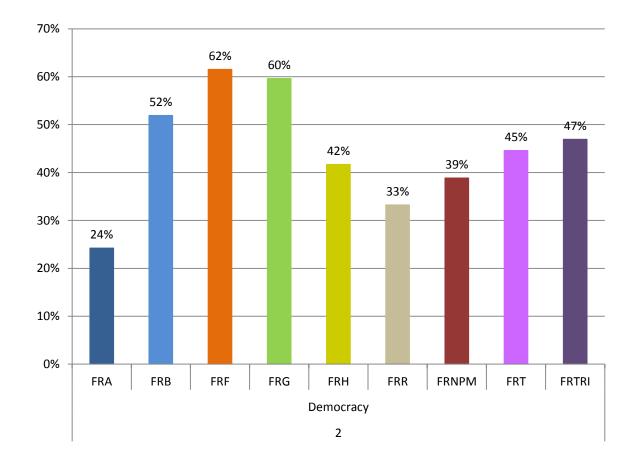

TRANSPARENCY

• All federations got the maximum score for the publication of their statutes and sports regulation. Only half of them published their internal regulation (55%) and multi-annual plan (55%).

• Only one third of federations included in their annual reports a statement on salary, a similar one on the remuneration of the CA members and of the management.

• No federation included risk exploration in their annual report, nor a statement regarding conflicts of interest.

DEMOCRACY. 45%

DEMOCRATIC PROCESS

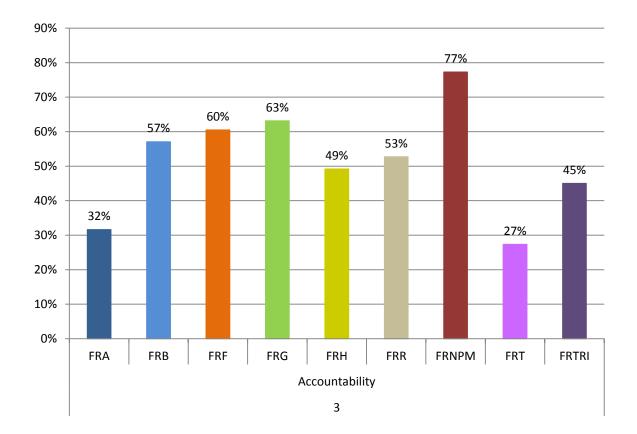

• Regulation ensures that the AG picks directly most of CA members (88%), while elections unfold on the basis of secret voting (88%).

• Very few federations set term limits for CA members in their statutes (11%).

• Very few federations have a formal policy regarding the implication of employees in the organisation's policies (12%) and none of them have such a policy on the implication of athletes.

ACCOUNTABILITY. 52%

INTERNAL ACCOUNTABILITY AND CONTROL

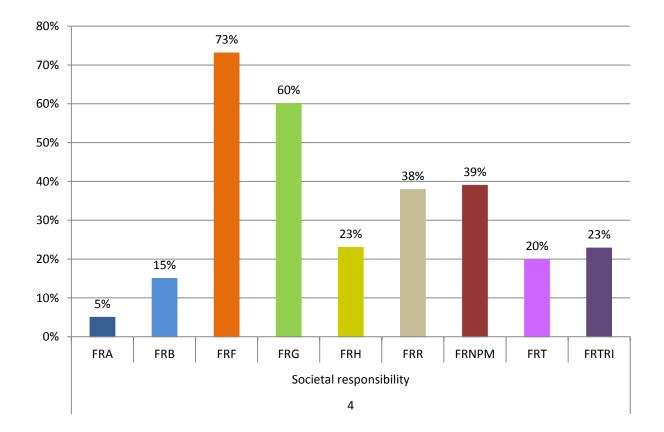

• All federations provide a clear definition of key CA positions, including the president's and at least one other important position.

• Less than half of the federations have a code of conduct applicable to the CA members and the staff (44%).

• None of the federations' codes applicable to CA members provide rules in regards to gifts, only a third of the federations set rules on conflicts of interest and less than a quarter have rules on expenses (22%).

SOCIETAL RESPONSIBILITY. 33%

SOCIETAL RESPONSIBILITY

• All federations have a formal policy that specifies the objectives and particular actions for prevention, screening and fight against doping, and implemented doping disciplinary rules in conformity with the WADA Code.

• Only a third of the federations have a formal policy that underlines the objectives and specific actions in regards to the consultation of the organisation's members on the subjects of management and governance.

• Few federations have objectives and specific actions meant to improve the social, cultural, educational or psychological situations of marginalised communities (11%).

CONCLUSIONS

□ The score obtained by the Romanian federations suggests that the sports system in Romania needs a Code of Good Governance implemented with the full support of the Ministry of Youth and Sports.

□ At the academic level, the Faculty of Journalism and Communication Studies will use the data collected through the Erasmus+ project to disseminate knowledge among students and use them as scientific support for Master degree and Bachelor degree.

Thank you!
