

GOOD GOVERNANCE IN NATIONAL SPORT ORGANISATIONS: CASE OF LITHUANIA

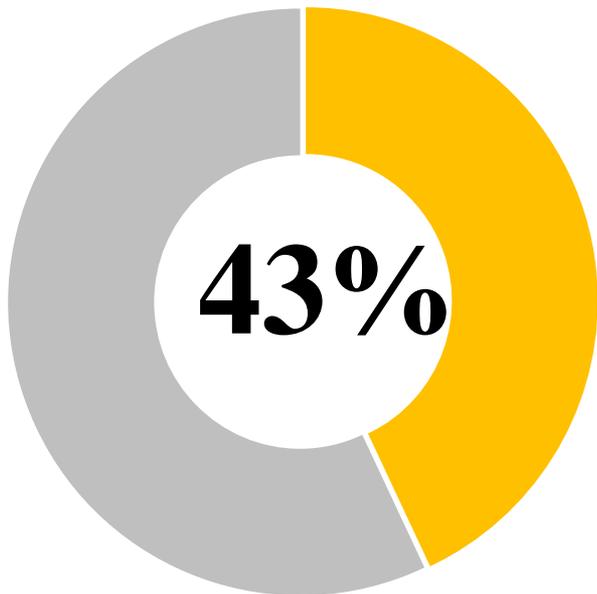

Play the Game 2019, Colorado Springs

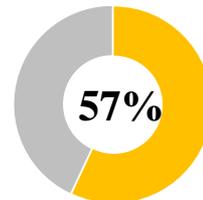

Research Brief

- Research on the good governance principles in Lithuanian sports federations applying the standardized set of indicators National Sport Governance Observer (NSGO) project (Geeraert, 2018).
- Sport organizations – seven Lithuanian sports federations covering boxing, cycling, hockey, kyokushin karate, basketball, rugby, modern pentathlon, and NOC of Lithuania.
- The data collection began in October 2018 and interviews with a majority of sport organizations took place in November and December 2018.

Lithuanian NSGO index score

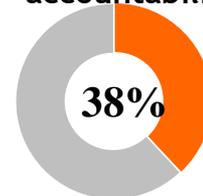

Transparency

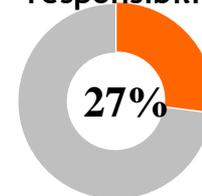

Democratic processes

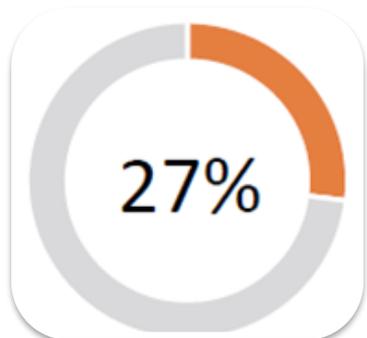

Internal accountability

Societal responsibility

Comparison with other countries

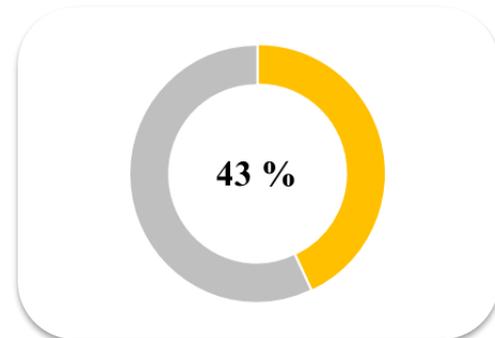

Cyprus

Poland

Germany

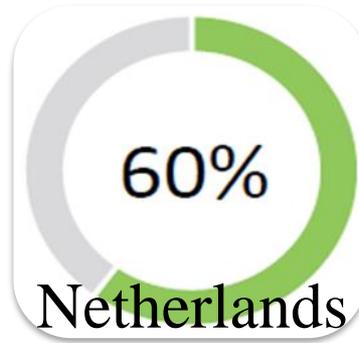

Lithuani
a

Romania

Belgium

Netherlands

Denmark

Norway

Comparison with other countries

Strengths	Weaknesses
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Legal and political documents are on websites• Clear and democratic electoral procedures for the members of the Executive Committee• Representation of all members in the General Assembly.• Anti-Doping Policy implementation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ignored conflicts of interest• Athletes are not included in policy and decision making processes• Lack of self-assessment procedures and practises• Non-implementation of gender equality policy• Unsecured fair treatment of professional athletes

Results

- The combined average NSGO index of the Lithuanian sport federations is 43%, which constitutes a “moderate” score.
- Transparency and democratic processes scored moderate, while internal accountability and societal responsibility dimensions were evaluated as weak.
- Organizations received particularly higher scores in areas where have been implemented regulatory policies.
- Generally, majority of the Lithuanian sport organizations have similar strengths and weaknesses related to good governance principles implementation.
- Though sport organizations are aware of the term of good governance, there is a lack of profound knowledge and practical skills on how to implement good governance principles.

Next steps

- Standardization using NSGO instrument
- Benchmark of Good Governance
 - Sports organizations in Lithuania
 - Good Governance overall level in Lithuania and in Europe
 - Follow the progress in time
- Education and assistance promoting good governance principles to sports organizations
- Establishing a quality brand of sports research in Lithuania